We need a full-time State Representative who shows up.

“Bill Humphrey has been an elected official who stays connected to us and shows up for community events, even when it’s not campaign season. No neighborhood in his district gets left behind.” – Jo-Louise Allen, former 30 year Brookline resident, current Newton Upper Falls constituent

“As my City Councilor, Bill Humphrey not only promptly and effectively addresses community needs brought to his attention, he builds connections and has supported residents including me to understand and engage with government processes so that we can build healthy communities together.” – Jonathan Goldenberg, current Newton Ward 5 constituent
